RULES

- Using the template overleaf, you can decorate your 'Welly' with anything you like – e.g. paint, crayons, material scraps, recycled stuff, leaves – anything you can think of! BUT it must have a wildlife theme and fit in an A4 envelope.
- There will be 2 judging categories based upon age: 5-10 years and 11-15 years old.
- Each category will have one winner, subject to receiving a minimum number of entries by the closing date.
- Judging will take place after the closing date of 06/12/2010, and the judges' decision will be final.
- Herts & Middlesex Wildlife Trust will be unable to return any entries and reserves the right to use any entries in publicity material for the "Wear your Wellies for Wildlife" campaign, either in print form or on the website.
- If competition winners are unable to attend the exclusive badger watching evening, they will be offered the chance to use their tickets to attend a badger watching evening at a date of their choice. Please note, however, all alternative dates will be open to the general public, and so in this instance we will be unable to guarantee Michael Clark's attendance.
- There is no cash or other alternative to the prize stated.
- The competition is not open to the paid staff of Herts & Middlesex Wildlife Trust or their families, volunteers are welcome to enter.
