

Volunteer Awards

HMWT recognises the outstanding contribution our volunteers make each year in our Volunteer Awards.

Volunteer Appreciation Nominations are now closed for 2011!

2010 Volunteer Award Winners

Gerald Salisbury - Warden of Frogmore Meadow for over 20 years and supports the Herts Water Vole Project & Wetlands for Water Voles & People project through surveys, habitat management advice & talking to the public.

Alan Reynolds - Pivotal role recording and developing King's Meads and Ball's Wood nature reserves. Assisted with revision of the Management Plan and ditch restoration at King's Meads and volunteer recorder there for 4 years. Spent 2009 recording data and coordinating survey data onto database for Balls Wood. Great advocate and champion for the Trust.

John Moss - Wildlife sites surveyor for approx 13 years, John is enthusiastic and committed. His work feeds into planning system and he assists with training new volunteer surveyors, passing on his knowledge & experience to both staff and volunteers.

Nominate a Great Volunteer!

We'd love to hear who YOU feel has been making a difference to wildlife - through their practical work on our reserves, raising the Trust's profile, generating money for our work or simply inspiring people to get out and enjoy the wildlife around them!