1. ADVERT

We are looking for someone to make the wetlands of the Colne Valley a better place for wildlife and to prevent water voles from becoming extinct.

Colne Valley Rivers and Wetlands Officer

£24,933 - £28,339 (SCP 24-28) plus 7% pension
37.5 hours per week
Fixed term contract until 31 December 2021 (with possible extension).

About the Trust

Herts and Middlesex Wildlife Trust is the leading local charity working to create a Living Landscape rich in wildlife, for everyone. We are supported by over 22,000 members and over 600 volunteers. We look after over 40 nature reserves and work with farmers and other landowners. We aim to inspire people to care about wildlife through a programme of events. As part of the national federation of 46 Wildlife Trusts, our influence is far-reaching and we play a vital role in standing up for wildlife.

Our staff team is enthusiastic, friendly and committed to wildlife conservation and exemplifies our values of professionalism, valuing contributions by others and continually striving to improve.

About the role

By working with partners through the Colne Valley, this post offers a unique opportunity to contribute to the conservation of the Colne Valley and the wildlife that is dependent upon its habitats.

The post holder will be responsible for managing this project which is funded by the Heritage Lottery Fund and forms part of the wider project, "The Colne Valley – A Landscape on the Edge."

The aims of this project are twofold:-

- Preventing water voles from becoming extinct in the Colne Valley.
- By working in partnership with the Colne Valley Fisheries Consultative, achieve integrated management of fisheries, balancing satisfying angling opportunities with conserving and increasing biodiversity, to the benefit of the wider Colne Valley.

You'll be an ambitious conservationist, educated to degree level or equivalent in a biological/environmental science and have significant experience of wetland habitat management, partnership working, volunteer development and community engagement.

If you would like an informal discussion about this post, please call Tim Hill, the Trust's Conservation Manager on 01727 858901.

3. ABOUT HERTS & MIDDLESEX WILDLIFE TRUST

This is an exciting time to join the Trust! During the past few years, the Trust has been growing and developing, with over 22,000 members and 600 volunteers. Our office at Grebe House is based on the edge of Verulamium Park in St Albans and we are a friendly team of 36 staff.

An increasing emphasis of the past few years has been our focus on landscape scale conservation - Living Landscapes. This calls for an integrated approach to our work on our nature reserves, with other landowners, through education and community and our influencing and advocacy work.

Our vision is an environment rich in wildlife for everyone.

Our mission is to protect and enhance wildlife and connect people with the natural world, working in partnership to create a Living Landscape in Herts & Middlesex.

Our strategic objectives are:

- WILDLIFE: to protect, enhance and connect places for wildlife on nature reserves, in urban areas and across the wider countryside through positive conservation action;
- PEOPLE: to inspire people to value the natural world and enable action for wildlife.

What we do

Formed in 1964, we are a local charity supported by people who care about protecting wildlife, including over 20,000 members. With volunteers, we manage a network of more than 40 nature reserves, covering nearly 2,000 acres. Beyond this our vision is of a living landscape, where we work with others to improve our towns and countryside for wildlife. We organise an annual programme of activities to inspire people about wildlife, including major events, talks, and guided walks.

The Trust is one of 46 local Wildlife Trusts across the UK, supported by over 800,000 members and managing 2,300 nature reserves across the UK. Together the Wildlife Trusts lobby for better protection of wildlife and wild places, and are dedicated to protecting wildlife for the future.

Staffing

The Trust staff includes the Living Landscape team, Fundraising & Communications team, the Finance team and the Business Support team.

Funding

Our annual turnover is approximately £1.5 million, over half of which comes from membership subscriptions. Grants and fundraising activities contribute the remainder.
